Ring Dance Held At ACHS

The Junior Class of Appomattox County High School held their ring dance on September 29th. The dance, which was to celebrate the receiving of the junior's high school rings, was held in the high school cafeteria.

Harriet Williams, disc jockey from WJJS in Lynchburg, played the records for the evening. The painting of the Josten class ring which was provided by Mrs. Richardson's art class was the focal point.

We would like to extend special thanks to Glenn Duff, Bessie Hash, and Velma Pankey for a beautiful job in decorating.

The Class of 1979 would like to express their appreciation to each individual who helped make the first ring dance at ACHS a memorable event. Beth Carter, Reporter
